

Fund processing by attrax S.A. on public holidays

Please note:

I. attrax accepts your orders on every day that the Frankfurt stock exchange is open for trading.

II. attrax only executes orders when the relevant day is not a national public holiday in the home country of the fund (see ISIN) or in the country in which the fund has been ordered from attrax. When there is a national public holiday in the home country of the fund or in the country in which the fund has been ordered, incoming orders for the fund are automatically booked for the next trading day. This applies irrespective of whether the sales prospectus for the fund in question states that orders would be accepted despite the national public holiday. This also applies to public holidays in regions which are a current investment focus of the fund.
